Presidential Inauguration

John B. Duff will be formally installed as the first President of the University of Lowell on October 1, 1976 in an outdoor campus ceremony beginning at 2:00 PM.

Elected to the Presidency of Lowell in December 1975, following a national search, Dr. Duff began his administration at the University in April this year. An educator, administrator, and immigration historian, he was formerly Provost at Seton Hall University in New Jersey.

As established by longstanding academic protocol, the new University president will receive greetings from noted local, state and federal representatives, in addition to students, faculty and alumni of the school. At the inaugural event, U.S. Senator Edward M. Kennedy and Massachusetts Governor Michael S. Dukakis will represent federal and state offices, and Lowell Mayor Leo J. Farley will attend for the city of Lowell. University delegates for the occasion include Dr. Ruth Tanner, chairman of the faculty; Mark Morse of Lawrence, president of the student government association, and Thomas A. Lumenello, president of the alumni association.

Honorary degrees will be presented at the special convocation to Dr. Robert M. Coles, research psychiatrist of the Harvard University Health Services and author; Kevin B. Harrington, President of the Massachusetts Senate; and Thomas W. McGee, Speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives. Announcement of the degrees was made by Joseph Serio, chairman of the board of trustees at Lowell, who will confer the awards with President Duff and faculty representatives.

Main speaker for the inaugural is Monsignor Thomas G. Fahy, President of Seton Hall University. Roman Catholic Auxiliary Bishop of Boston, Bishop Joseph J. Ruocco will read the invocation, and His Grace Iakovos, Bishop for the New England Greek Orthodox Diocese, has been invited to give the benediction.

The stately academic procession for the ceremony will include 150 delegates from higher education throughout the United States, with presidents, alumni and other collegiate officers as representatives marching in order of the founding of their institutions. The march begins at 2:00 PM from the O'Leary Library on the South Campus.

The University of Lowell is one of the largest institutions of higher learning in New England, with a current enrollment of approximately 11,000 students. Formed in 1975 by the merger of Lowell State College and Lowell Technological Institute, Lowell is one of two publicly sponsored educational facilities in the state system to award Doctoral degrees.

The new President is a graduate of Fordham University and holds a Master's degree from Seton Hall. Dr. Duff received a Ph.D. in history from Columbia University in 1964. Author of The Irish in the United States (1971), he co-authored The Nat Turner Rebellion: The Historical Event and the Modern Controversy with Peter M. Mitchell, and The Structure of American History. His most recent book is Slavery: Its Origins and Legacy, published last year with Larry Greene.

Following five years in private industry with the Remington Rand Corporation, Dr. Duff served over 15 years at Seton Hall and was a resident of Livingston, New Jersey. His academic career in New Jersey included terms as an instructor in history, full professor, and vice president for academic affairs. As a member of the faculty, Duff was president of the American Association of University Professors, Seton Hall chapter, and chairman of the faculty senate. From 1966 to 1970 he was a member and vice chairman of the Essex County College Board of Trustees, and a consultant to the Essex County Youth and Economic Rehabilitation Commission, Office of Economic Opportunity in Newark, New Jersey.

Dr. Duff is married to the former Helen Mezzanotti of Worcester. They now reside in Lowell and have six children.

Durgin Hall

ULowell's new music Building, Durgin, was opened to faculty this summer. It will be officially dedicated in November.

Ralph Nader — Oct. 7

The Student Activities Commission voted to bring Ralph Nader to speak at ULowell on October 7 at 11:00 am. Mr. Nader, a well known consumer and citizen's rights advocate, will speak in the Quadrangle at the South Campus. The ULowell engagement will be one in a series of speeches Nader will make in Massachusetts that week. Mr. Nader has been a strong supporter of the referendum process which put several issues on the ballot in Massachusetts this November such as the bottle bill, public power, the equal rights amendment and the flat rate electric proposal. He is expected to speak on these and other issues. Mass PIRG is co-sponsoring the event. Scott Dowty, the Lowell student who presented the idea to the Activities Commission stated that "With Mr. Nader's speech coming just before the election the citizens of Lowell will be given the opportunity to hear the other side of some of the issues that are being so heavily opposed by commercial interests in Massachusetts."

Planning to Vote?

ULowell dormitory students can register to vote here in Lowell in the November presidential election.

There will be a registration night this Wednesday, September 29 for residents of Fox, Leitch, Bourgeois and Concordia at the CMAC Hall at 211 Pawtucket St. (next to Campus SUB); and this Friday, October 1 for residents of Smith and Eames at the Mammoth Rd. Fire House (corner of Third Avenue).

All off-campus students that are living in Lowell are also eligible. For the registration night in your neighborhood call the City of Lowell Election Commission at 454-8821.

In addition, registration is held daily at their offices at the City Hall, 375 Merrimack St. on the ground floor. Their hours are 9 am to 5 pm, Monday through Friday. Special hours have been set for this Saturday, October 2 (12 noon to 10 pm) and next Tuesday, October 5 (9 am to 10 pm).

If you are registered at your home but don't plan to vote there you may register to vote here; and if you're not registered at all, now is the time. Don't forget next Tuesday, October 5 is the deadline if you plan to vote in the Presidential Election.

NOTICES

Due to the flagrant abuses of the deadline this past week, absolutely no article will be considered for publication unless it conforms to all specifications. The Connector policy appeared on the front page of the Sept. 11 issue of the Connector. These rules must be observed.

The last day for any University day student to have an I.D. photo taken is TODAY, Monday, September 27, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in Cumnock Hall [North Campus] for all majors.

President Duff will have open office hours for students on Wednesdays from 11 to 1 in his office in Cumnock Hall—North Campus.

APOLOGY

An editorial in last week's Connector entitled "Student Fees: Getting Your Money's Worth" criticized the Rathskellar for inefficient service. While I still believe the service at the Rat needs to be improved, my reasoning was based on the thought that the students paid for this service through the $50.00 Student Union Fee. I have since been informed that the Building Authority receives 8 percent of the gross sales from the Rathskellar. This payment is received as rent and the Rathskellar is not subsidized in any part by the Student Union Fee. My apologies to the Rathskellar Management.

Connector Consumer Column

We, the students of ULowell, and particularly the resident students, are anywhere between three and eight percent of the Greater Lowell community. Although most of us don't have a lot of money, we do use area businesses and services, mainly out of convenience. 3 to 8% may not seem like much, but with our cars, stereos and appetites, we certainly affect the profits of local businesses.

But what about the quality of the services we're getting; the things we're buying? Those of us who are upperclassmen or have spent time in the area may have been cheated more than once by a Lowell area business. For some of us Lowell Center will have to do because that's as far as the old feet will go. But we can help each other shop around, even in choosing which local businesses to patronize.

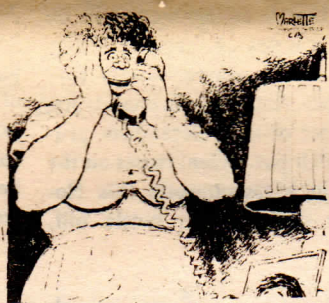

We'd like to try something new—the Connector Consumer Column. The Consumer Column will contain information helpful to all Connector readers about businesses throughout the Greater Lowell area. Its purpose is NOT to advertise or to slander any business, but simply to advise for the members of our school community the best possible services and merchandise, based on actual experiences. However little they may be, our purchases add to the profits of many a Lowell business, and there is no reason why we shouldn't get the most for our money.

What can you do? Just take a few moments to think of any incident where you have been ripped off by an area business. You may also remember some time when you were rendered exceptionally good service and want others to know about it. Businesses may include gas stations, garages, supermarkets, department stores, pizzerias, junkyards, hospitals and doctors, even the post office—in short, any place you've spent money. Just give the name and location and a sentence or two explaining the complaint or compliment. Please include your name and box number; they will not be printed. Only input from members of the UL community will be accepted.

Send your complaints or compliments to Sheila, North Campus box 2882, no later than Monday if they are to be published in the next issue of the Connector.

Note: The Connector will not be responsible for fabricated information. If such information is printed and the Connector is not aware of its falsity, the author shall be entirely responsible for any legal problems which might

"You were busted? Oh, that's a relief—for a second there I thought you said you were busted!"

Why the electrician???

Dear Editor,

At the present time, Student Government pays fifty dollars a weekend for an electrician to hook up bands to the power source in the cafeteria. This expense is unprecedented, unnecessary, and excusable. When operating with the everyday household 110 volt circuit, plugging in a band is as simple as plugging in your morning coffeepot. There are no fancy tools, colored wires, fuse boxes, or main switches needed to do this technical phenomena. Sticking the plug in the everyday outlet does the trick. Difficult?? Apparently someone thinks so.

The Director of Physical Plant, Charles DeFilippo, has mandated that all functions in the Rat that require electricity must have an electrician present. The apparent administrative reason is for student safety. This justification is ridiculous! We operated thirty weekends last year without one single incident requiring assistance. Why now? The bands set up now just as they did then. Every band has a few technicians that are qualified and responsible for setting up the sound system, etc. The band equipment is very expensive, consequently; they don't want any outside help with it. Outside clubs don't hire an electrician when they have a band. The reasons are the same.

What is the solution? A possible suggestion is to have the entertainment director submit electrical specifications of each weekend band to the school electrician. He could inspect them and advise him of any possible complications. This suggestion is an inexpensive compromise. Student safety is insured, and student dollars are saved. It would also represent the kind of cooperation necessary between the students and administration for successful and economical student functions.

The administration should realize that the student government budget is as tight as their maintenance overtime budget. If their overtime budget does not provide enough money for the "boys," the weekly salary will have to do. We don't hire plumbers for possible leaks, nor do we hire janitors for possible beer spills, nor do we hire carpenters for a possible stage break. We should not have to hire an electrician either.

Dear Eliot

Dear Students and Faculty,

During the past week I received an inquiry regarding the Eames Hall parking lot. The Eames Hall parking lot was recently acquired for student use at the last meeting of the University Parking Committee. It had formerly been used as a faculty parking area. As such it presented only one problem for an important minority of students. It was noted that the haphazard manner of parking had caused the handicapped students residing in Eames to operate their wheelchairs on Riverside Street.

During the week previous to the start of the fall semester the maintenance staff installed guard posts along the perimeter of said parking area. Unfortunately the maintenance department does not own the cable stretching machine needed to install the guard cable. For this reason the commonwealth highway department was contacted and has promised to install the cable within the coming weeks.

This column is open to any student, faculty, or staff member who has a question or comment pertaining to University activities. Questions may be sent to me in care of Box #5440 on South Campus or Box #223 on North Campus. Enclose your name, Box #, and Student I.D. number.

'Parking

Students shall go on notice that vehicles parked in TOW AREAS will be towed at the owner's expense. Other parking violators will a WARNING for the first offense, and a $2.00 fine for the second and all subsequent offenses. These charges will be collected through the Lowell District Court and will be subsequently turned over to the University for the Scholarship Fund.

Some time within the next 30 days, thirty-minute meters will be installed on University Avenue in front of the Library and on Broadway in front of Coburn Hall. Included in this area will be Bus stops for the University shuttle bus. The meters will assist students who must go from one campus to another for quick pick-up or delivery; i.e., dropping off books at Libraries, stops at the Business Office or Registrars Office.

If you park on sidewalks or grassy areas, you will be towed!

New lighting has been installed in many University parking areas. Students should use these well-lighted areas.

You are not to park in any lined crosswalks; and be particularly cautious of not parking vehicles on wheelchair ramps.

Sometime during this semester parking will be suspended between Pawtucket Street and Broadway. The reason for this change is that Wilder Street will become a City thoroughfare when the "S" high bridge on Pawtucket Street, beyond the Humane Society, is closed for reconstruction.

Further, it is anticipated that some time soon Standish Street, behind the North Campus Library, will be turned over to the University by the City of Lowell, giving the University the authority to tag and tow any violators.

Please keep these facts in mind when you are parking at the University.

Wanted

The Governance Committee of the Student Senate is looking for responsible individuals to serve on the Student Court. The Student Court is basically a check on the Senate, the A.C., and other Student Government Committees to make sure that they stay within their boundaries defined by the Student Government Constitution.

There are nine positions on the Student Court, and eight need to be filled. It is vital for the proper functioning of the Student Government.

Applications may be picked up at the Senate office in the South Campus SUB, or in the North Campus mailroom.

Nuclear Teach-in

Ralph Nader and Sam Lovejoy will highlight a day of films, workshops and speeches at Boston University Thursday, October 7. The dangers of nuclear power will be featured in films shown at Sherman Student Union beginning at noon. Nader and no-nukes activist Lovejoy will speak at Morse Auditorium beginning at 3:30. Area scholars will address issues of disposing radioactive wastes, nuclear proliferation, economic feasibility, and alternative energy sources. Workshop topics also include strategies for political action, a history of the anti-nuclear movement, and the technology of the nuclear reactor.

Sponsored by Mass PIRG, the Boston Clams, and the BU Student Union. For more information or to help call 423-1796.

CW concert

Saturday, October 2, 1976 the Lilly Family returns to the scene of their last Boston performance. This should be a landmark day in Boston country-music history as they return to the Boston audience that loved them so well for so long. Everett and Bea say they are excited and looking forward to seeing old friends and making many new ones. The warmth and simple beauty of their music should ensure that as it has with audiences throughout the world. This is a concert long anticipated and hoped for by thousands of Lilly fans all over New England.

Tickets are still available at $5 and $7 from Mountain Music Associates, Box 426, Malden MA, 02148. Remaining tickets(if any) will be made available at the door on the night of the concert—John Hancock Hall—Saturday, October 2nd at 8:00 pm. This is one concert the "traditional" music fan surely won't want to miss.

South campus students

Thank you—South Campus Students. Your cooperation in keeping the cafe as clean as it was on opening day has gone beyond our expectations. We are most grateful to you.

Good News—on Monday, October 4, a Snack Bar will open on the second floor of the SUB between the hours of 2:30 and 5:00 pm. This Snack Bar is to provide food service during the hours that the cafe is closed.

In the beginning, the Snack Bar furnishings will be very rudimentary. As soon as possible, University employees will construct more permanent equipment. More tables and chairs will be added.

Additional tables and chairs have been ordered for the main area of the SUB. They will be installed in about five weeks time. In the interim, more furniture will be transferred to the SUB from other University buildings.

Please continue to cooperate in keeping the cafe and the SUB clean. We shall keep you informed on the progress of this work.

Anyone interested in forming an equestrian club at ULowell should contact Prof. Luter at Coburn, 4th floor, Rm 403. Office hours are Mon. 11-12, Tues. 11-12, 2-3, Thurs. 11-1, 2-3, Fri 1-3.

Pregnancy and the single college girl

Unwanted pregnancy can be a problem for a single girl who is still in college. It is not an uncommon problem. There is a great deal of sexual freedom when kids move to college. Many find they are living away from home for the first time. For most young adults this is the time when parental supervision drops, allowing them to have free run of their lives and sexual behavior.

Unfortunately, some people take their sexual freedom too carelessly. They don't use any methods of birth control, or if they do, they aren't serious enough to use it properly. Use of the diaphragm, condoms and foams are only effective when they are used with caution. Misuse can result in accidental pregnancy.

P.S.I.C.S. (Peer Sex Information and Counseling Service) offers free pregnancy tests to the students of the University of Lowell. It doesn't take much time to have this test. All you have to do is bring a first morning urine sample in a clean bottle to the P.S.I.C.S. office (we have bottles in the office for your convenience). You can get the results by calling the P.S.I.C.S. office later that same day.

Timing is very important. The pregnancy test should be taken 45 days after your last menstrual period at the earliest. If the test results are negative we recommend that you repeat the test in two weeks. It is possible to be pregnant and have a negative pregnancy test if you are in very early stages of pregnancy.

Pregnancy testing is one of the many services P.S.I.C.S. has to offer. If you have any questions about the pregnancy tests, birth control, or any other problems related to sex, call P.S.I.C.S. The Hot Line number is 453-3804. Or come up to our office in S.U.B. 348 on the South Campus.

WLTI 91.5

The fall program schedule went into effect last Monday with WLTI signing on the air at 3 pm most weekdays and 10 am weekends. You can hear many different types of music, news at 6 pm and a variety of special programs. One of the specials of the semester will be the broadcast of Dr. Duff's inauguration this Friday. WLTI will cover the ceremonies from start to finish. To find out more about your college radio station, stop down at WLTI. We'll be happy to show you around.

Sounds of light

"Make a joyful sound to the Lord—come into His presence with singing." (Ps. 100:1,2)

Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ! The Sounds of Light is starting its sixth season on Tuesday, Sept. 28. They are born-again Christians (an affiliate with the Agape Fellowship) who wish to tell of the Good News of Christ's salvation through music.

If you are born-again, and have some musical ability or just want to worship the Lord with music, come and join us! Our first meeting will be on Tuesday, Sept. 28 at 11:30 am in the North Lobby of Durgin Hall, So. Campus. (The North Lobby is nearest to Wilder St.) For more information, call Lynn Miller, 458-9403 or call Cary Chiknas, 457-7897, after 5:00 pm.

SAM

SAM has already begun to organize activities for the year. Brian Kist, Career Day Co-ordinator and Ed Keon met with Michelle Cunha at the Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday, to plan our first Career Day. We have contacted the head of the Personnel Council and are lining up speakers. We will bring personnel management to the school to give students tips on how to land jobs. They will discuss interviewing techniques, resume writing and ways of making yourself attractive to an employer.

Donna Casali is busy rounding up members for the coming year. Bob Zappulla will be taking applications and membership fees ($3.00 for local membership). You should join SAM. We can give you exposure to the real business world to supplement dry classroom learning. You won't get a job in a classroom! Come to our first general meeting Tuesday, 11:30 in the clean SAM Office in the fourth floor of the filthy Pasteur Hall.

Arnold Air Society

On the 18th of September, the Arnold Air Society started off its year with a flying start. The Society members, almost outnumbering the patients, treated the patients of the Soloman Mental Health Center to a tour of Logan International Airport.

One might say, "So what, you went to an airport, big deal." The fact is, even in the 20th Century, there are a lot of people who have never been to an airport, and even more, who have never flown in a jet aircraft. For these people, this trip was quite an experience, and for us it was very enjoyable.

The trip consisted of a bus ride to Logan, then a tour, by bus, of the runways and hangar areas; even a close look at most of the larger jets (747 Cargo Liner, L1011, and the DC10). The whole group was also given a complete tour, including the cockpit, of a Boeing 707 Whisperjet, courtesy of Massport, and Eastern Airlines.

All functions given by our society are non-profitable, and we must raise the funds ourselves. So when you see the A.A.S. selling pastry or hot dogs on our hot dog day, please help us out; buy something.

All freshmen ROTC Cadets are invited to an AAS freshman seminar, to be held Monday the 4th of October. The time will be from 7:30-9:30 in the Arnold Air Lounge. For more information, talk to any AAS member.

The first blood drive of the year is tentatively set for Friday, October 15. It is possible that at that time, WLTI will be broadcasting live from Cummock Hall.

As a special note of interest, the Charles L. Vacanti Squadron will be trying for area headquarters this November. If we win the bid, the University of Lowell will be the new headquarters for Area A-1. So wish us luck!!!

Drop-in center

The Drop-In Center is a new organization on campus whose aim it is to create solidarity among the students of the University of Lowell and to help make your time here as anxiety free as possible. Our office is in Rm 349 SUB south and is staffed by people who have learned how to listen—I mean really LISTEN—both non-judgmentally and non-egocentrically, to what's bothering you about this school or anything else. If we can't help you, the chances are good that we know who can. And if you want to make some changes around here, we want to see you especially! Come over and visit with us anytime. We're open M.W.F. 8-4, and T. and Th. 8-3. If you're interested in joining us, come any Tuesday at 11:00 and sit in on a meeting.

Our next project is to establish a permanent coffee house on campus, serving non-alcoholic drinks (various coffees and teas) and providing a forum for some of the artistic talent at the school. If you're in favor of this move, please sign the petition being circulated or at the office, and if you want to help get it going or want to help in any way drop by the office Tuesdays at 11:00. Remember—we as students can do a lot at this school IF we band together—and we're beginning to!!

We put some of America's most important natural resources into the ground.

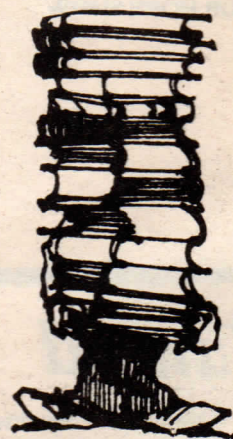

Highly trained, highly qualified, and highly dedicated missile officers in the Air Force. Getting down to the vital business of keeping America alert. This is a specialized field available to a few very special men.

You can prepare to enter this exciting field by enrolling in an Air Force ROTC program. Four-year, 3-year, or 2-year programs leading to a commission of an Air Force officer. There are scholarships available, plus $100 monthly allowances. And after college, an Air Force opportunity for a challenging job and with paid-for graduate educational degrees.

If you're the type of a guy who wants to plant your feet on a solid foundation, look into the Air Force ROTC programs and look ahead to becoming a missile launch officer in the Air Force.

Get all the details... no obligation, of course.

Put it all together in Air Force ROTC.

Give blood, brothers.

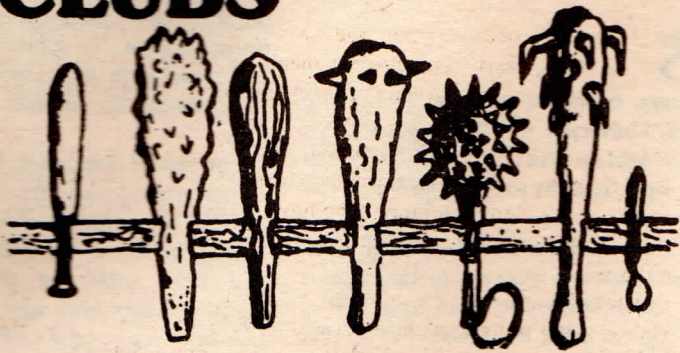

It's so easy to give
... yet so precious.

Help someone else
with the gift of life.

Photography Club

The photography club opened the year with a record crowd of approx. 25 students. Enthusiasm was at an all time peak as President, Doug Haycock, led the club through a discussion of plans for the year and routine organizational matters.

In the way of organizational matter was the setting of the club's dues at $4.00 for the semester. Also a fund raising committee was organized to build up our bank account. John Segedy and Dave Boldi were appointed to a Committee to prepare a budget for the year. Nominations were taken for the officers:

Pres.: Doug Haycock
V.P.: Jim Mussnug, Ken Waddicor
Sec.: John Segedy, Steve Seois
Treas.: Jeff Murdock, Caroline Downing, Dave Romanelli
Elections will be held at this week's meeting.

Plans for the year included films, educational and photo taking trips (and what TRIPS they should be), student photography services, and displays both on and off campus.

This week's meeting will be held as usual at 12:30 on the North Campus in room K-209 of Kitson Hall on Tuesday. The photography club is an equal opportunity madhouse and all members of the university community are welcome to attend.

Spanish Club

On Tuesday, September 28 at 11:00 am, the University of Lowell's Spanish Club, "La Generacion del '74" will hold its first function of the year. For old members, it will be a reunion, and for new members or anyone interested, it will be a reception. It will take place at the Foreign Language Department on 68 Wilder St., and refreshments will be served. Membership in the club is open not only to Spanish majors and minors, but also to all who would like to participate in Hispanic cultural activities.

The club has many social events planned. We hope to have as enjoyable an Hispanic Night as last year with a Latin band, sangria, and tacos. We will be going to Worcester State College to see La Tuna from the University of Madrid. This traveling student group of minstrels performs 16th century music and song. We also look forward to having Miguel Rubio, the Spanish classical guitarist, as well as some popular Spanish movies (with subtitles), our traditional taco sales, and a trip to a Spanish restaurant. Please come, if you are interested, to the Foreign Language Department on September 28, at 11:00 am.

U.L.S.C.C.

Sunday, Sept. 19, the U.L.S.C.C. held its first event of the season, "Spring Autocross 2." Autocross coordinator was Albert Daneau. The course was written by Phil Ribaud. Winners were:

Class 1

Car #69
David Cooper/9 11 S

Class 2

Car #1
Rick Butland/Camaro SS

Class 4

Car #3
Dennis Unger/Innocenti 5

Class 5

Car #13
Jeff Mingels/TR 4A

Class 6

Car #300
Dan Zubrick/Celica

Class 7

Car #100
Steve Adams/Mini Cooper

The next Autocross is Oct. 3. There will be a meeting Tuesday the 26th in room 524 SUB(N) 11:30. Questions on U.L.S.C.C. events can be sent to Al Daneau Box 2014(N).

Drama Club gets underway

The first meeting of The Players was held this past Tuesday with a fine turnout. This year's president is Doug McDonald; Gardner Tillson is the faculty advisor. The first production will be Everything in the Garden by Edward Albee and will be presented three nights: Dec. 2, 3, and 4. Try-outs are open to the student body. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 28, on the third floor of the North Campus SUB at 11:30.

New Psychology Club

The Student-Faculty Affairs Committee of the Psychology Department will hold a general meeting for all psychology majors on Tuesday, October 5 in Weed Lecture Hall #1 at 11:30 am. Due to the importance of this meeting, all psychology majors are strongly urged to attend.

The meeting will focus in on a number of important issues facing all psychology concentrators, one of which is the formation of an all new Psychology Club. As of today, the University is without such an organization, but with the support of the student body, we shall make every effort possible to formulate a Psychology Club which shall be open to all students, regardless of major.

The meeting will also focus in on the election of student representatives to three of the Psychology

Department's committees. One student representative will be elected to each of the following committees:

Recruitment Committee

The function of this committee is to screen all applicants for faculty positions in the Psychology Department. This committee consists of the following faculty members:

Marc Rondeau, Ph.D.
Allie Scruggs, Ph.D.
Cathy Hulbert, Ph.D.

Curriculum Committee

Accountable for all course offerings and concentrations requirements. This committee consists of the following faculty members:

Gloria Seeman, Ph.D.
Ricky Sweet, Ph.D.
Richard Siegel
Steven Score
Judy O'Brien

Long-Range Planning Committee

This is the newest of all of the Psychology Department's committees, especially designed to focus in on the long range goals of the Department. This committee has just been organized. This committee consists of the following faculty members:

Debbie Schildkraut, Ph.D.
Mary Walsh, Ph.D.
Steven Score
Charles Nikitopoulos
Richard Siegel

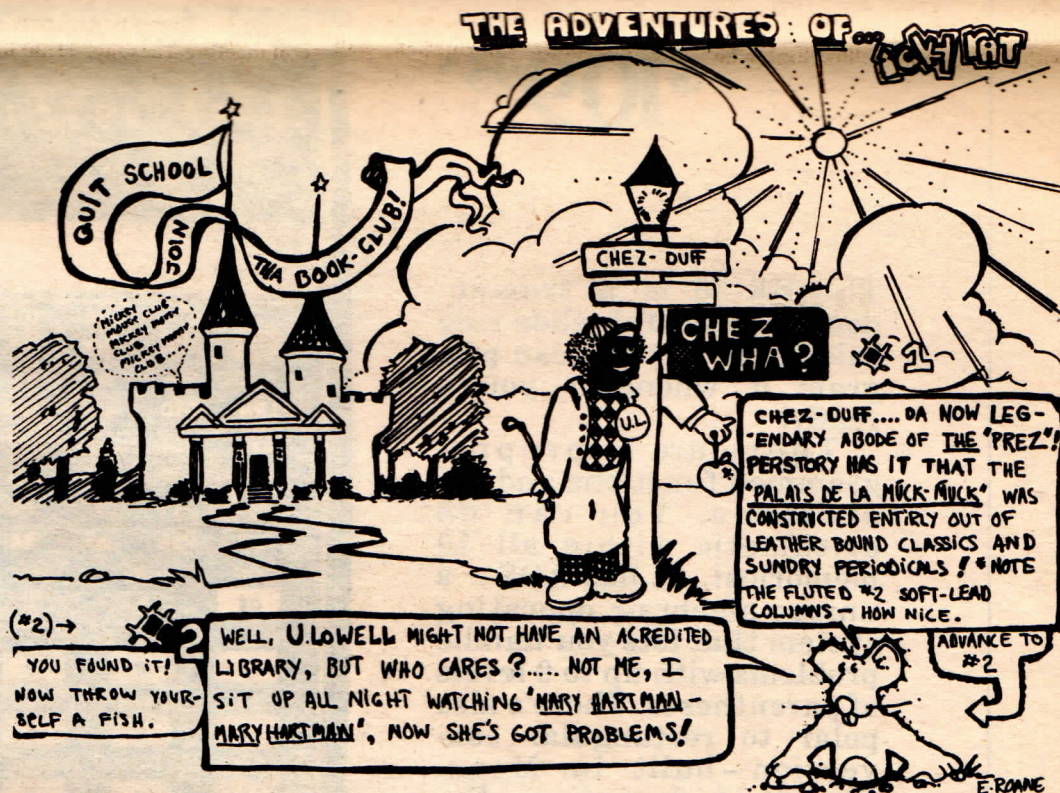

Student advisement, career orientation, graduate programs and general information will also be discussed. Tuesday, October 5 will give Psychology Majors an opportunity to introduce themselves to faculty members and student representative, Andrew Vallario.

Lowell students support Bottle Bill

ULowell students are organizing to get the Bottle Bill passed in November. Ten students have attended the first two of the regular Tuesday Bottle Bill meetings in the Mass PIRG office at the Student Union Building, South Campus. At these meetings students have worked with Peter Rider, Mass PIRG staff attorney, to plan a strategy to counteract the massive advertising campaign that the container industry is sponsoring throughout the state. The industry has raised over $600,000 already, most of that from out of state. Proponents of the Bottle Bill have raised only $7,000. PIRG student Sue Kaplan, coordinator for Western Massachusetts, noted that "Without grass roots student involvement opponents of the bill will be able to buy-off the public with a massive advertising campaign." ULowell student Charles Gargiuzo is organizing a Lowell Committee for the Massachusetts Bottle Bill. This committee will work with community groups to educate voters on the merits of the Bottle Bill. Students interested in working on the committee should contact Charlie through the Mass PIRG office (458-0021) or by calling 459-6030.

Students interested in finding out more about the Massachusetts Bottle Bill should come to the next Tuesday Bottle Bill meeting in the Mass PIRG office at 11:45 am.

Outing Club

The University of Lowell Outing Club will hold its first meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 28 at 12:00 in the Outing Club Office, South Campus SUB, Room 340.

All those interested in hiking, canoeing, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and outdoor fun in general, are urged to attend.

We are a legitimate, University-funded club and we've had a number of enjoyable and memorable excursions in the past. Please help make further good times possible by coming to the meeting.

Highlights

Last week the Activities Commission convened and passed motions to have the following speakers at the University:

Mel Blanc Sunday Nov. 14

Estimated expenses $1950

Amazing Kreskin Thursday Feb.

17 Estimated expense $1000

Margaret Mead Anthropologist

Thursday April 7 Estimated expense $2000

Jimmy (Scotty) Doohan Star Trak

Thursday Dec. 9 Estimated expense $1500

George Gallup Jr. could not be obtained before the election, so it was decided to cancel his appearance.

Ralph Nader will be coming to the University on October 7th. He will speak in the South Campus Quadrangle at 11:00 am and if rain, will speak in the South Campus Student Union. The estimated cost will be $2000.

Red Auerbach MAY be coming to speak sometime in March.

Another motion was passed that allocated $1077 for five nights of films—a total of 14 films.

Also passed was a motion that requires all clubs that have an office in the North Campus Student Union to place a $10 deposit on their set of office keys.

Another motion was passed which allocated money for a mixer on Oct. 1st featuring IMAGE.

The Highlight of the meeting was when a motion was passed to allocate $400 for an apple pickin' trip on Sunday Oct. 10th.

BANDS

On Friday, October 1, the Activities Commission will sponsor an alternative to the "Inaugural Gala" (Ball). This alternative will consist of a mixer to be held in the South Campus Student Union Building. The band will be IMAGE. Back in the Rathskellar on Saturday, October 2, the band will be WELCOME.

C.E. Program Accredited

The Civil Engineering Department may finally be accredited as the result of the construction and outfitting of four new laboratories. Ever since its establishment in 1969 the Civil Engineering program at Lowell has not been accredited because it did not have four of the five necessary laboratories. In the basement of Southwick Hall workmen are constructing the rooms which will hold new transportation, structures, soils, and foundation laboratories. The work should be finished in January.

The rest of Southwick Hall will be modernized with interior painting and the addition of new windows. The money for this project had been voted by the state legislature five years ago, but delays by the governor's office held up funds until last winter.

The ULowell Civil Engineering program will be reviewed by the ECPD in October and they are expected to give accreditation to the department. This will be a great boost to the CE students. In the past, CE graduates from Lowell have had problems getting employment and into graduate school because of the lack of accreditation.

ELECTIONS

Elections for freshman class officers, freshman senators, sophomore class officers, activities commission, University of Lowell Book Store Associates, and senior senators will be held on Wed. Oct. 13 in the North campus mailroom and the South campus student union from 9 am to 3 pm.

Candidates for class office must have 50 signatures from their class, and candidates at large must have 50 signatures from the undergraduate student body. These signatures must be submitted to Dean King's office by Friday Oct. 8 at noon and the register must be signed. For further information contact the Student Senate Office on the South Campus.

The positions open are:

Freshman Class—President, vice-president, treasurer, Secretary, 7 senators, 3 representatives on Activities Commission, and 1 rep. for the University of Lowell Book Store Associates.

Sophomore Class—Vice-president, treasurer, secretary, 1 rep. for University of Lowell Book Store Associates, and a run-off for president.

Junior Class—1 rep. for U of L Book Store Associates.

Senior Class—2 senators, 2 reps. for Activities Commission, 1 rep for U of L Book Store Associates

At Large—1 rep. for U of L Book Store Associates

The super slide rule programmable powerhouse

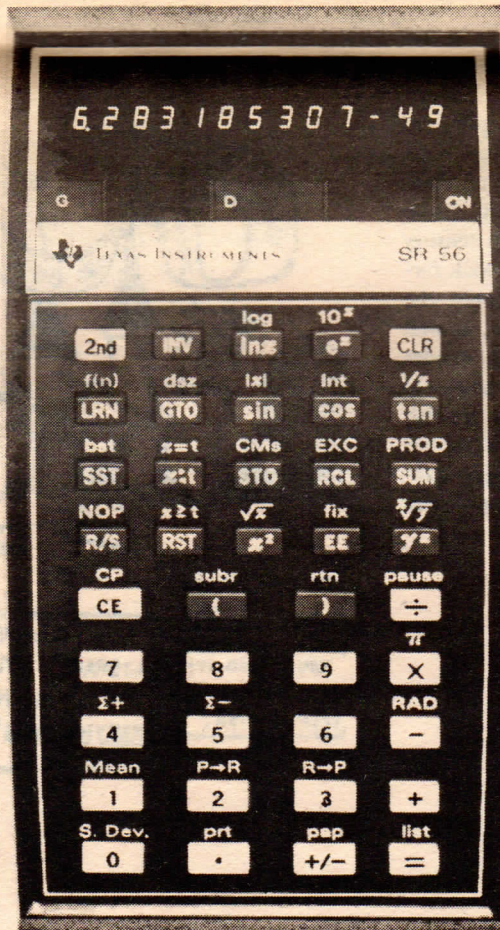

...with 10 memories and 100 program steps.

$109⁹⁵*

The SR-56 is a tremendously powerful slide rule calculator. Yet you can program it whenever you're ready.

There are 74 preprogrammed functions and operations. You can do arithmetic within all 10 memories†. It has AOS—a unique algebraic operating system that lets you handle problems with up to 9 levels of parentheses. There's also polar to rectangular conversion—built in. Mean. Standard deviation. Degrees, radians, grads. And, it works with TI's new printer—the PC-100.

Chances are, you'll be programming. That's what professionals in your field are doing—right now. And with an SR-56 you're ready. It has 100-merged prefix program steps. 6 logical decision functions. 4 levels of subroutines. You can decrement and skip on zero to iterate a loop as many times as you specify. There are 4 levels of subroutine to let you use your program steps to maximum advantage. And, you can even compare a test register with the display to make a conditional branch. So you can check an intermediate result for convergence, or a maximum.

The edge you need. Now. And in your career.

Veterans

Effective this date, all recipients of Veteran's benefits at the University of Lowell will be required to certify their attendance at the University by the following procedure, subject to the penalty of perjury.

On the first Wednesday of each month or the following day, if Wednesday is a holiday, each recipient will be required to register attendance at the Office of the Dean of his or her College on a list which will be kept at that office. The procedure will be repeated on the third Wednesday or the following day, if that Wednesday is a holiday.

All changes in status of the recipient must also be reported, this includes dropping below 12 credit hours, and there will be an appropriate SPACE ON THE REPORTING FORM FOR THIS PURPOSE.

Failure to register will be reported immediately to the Registrar who will then contact the person involved. If no satisfactory response is elicited for failure to register within one week of reporting date, the Office of the Veteran's Administration will be so informed.

The first Registration date will be Wednesday, October 6th.

N.B. The above applies to all Veterans and Sone & Daughters of Veterans receiving educational benefits.

All clubs

The locks on your doors have been changed. If you need to get into your room tonight come to room 410 at 8:00 pm. You must bring your old room keys and a ten dollar deposit on your two new room keys. If you can't make it tonight come Tuesday at 8:00. All clubs who want rooms should come with their ten dollar deposit Tuesday for a meeting at 8:30. You must come one of these nights if you are to retain your room. If you don't, your room will be given away and your things will be removed. Rooms will be given to new clubs by their degree of necessity and if they come to the meeting. Remember you don't own the rooms and this is one case that apathy could hurt you.

Winners of the Kon-nector Kontest will be announced in next week's issue of the Connector.

SOUTH CAFE.

On Friday, October 1, the Cafeteria will be closed on the South Campus for Inauguration festivities.

All South Campus students who are on contract feeding will be served breakfast in Concordia Hall, be issued box lunches, and then take a bus to the North Campus, Fox Hall, for dinner according to revised bus schedule.

Kappa Delta Phi

Greetings from the men of Kappa Delta Phi. We're all back at the University to resume our endless quest for knowledge. Now that you've been lied to, the pressure is off in our attempt to present truthful journalism.

For the next three weeks, Brother Bill Sullivan will be the main figure in the Fraternity spotlight. Sully is this year's Pledgemaster and has the honor of instilling Brotherhood in Kappa pledges. This semester, ten men have accepted the Kappa Challenge. They are: Jim Michaud, Dave Hanks, Paul Jeppson, Joe Manseau, Bernie Fields, Matt O'Neil, Mike Thornton, Tim Mullen, Dennis Thomchek, and last, and certainly least, Paul Lyons. The Brotherhood wishes these pledges enough endurance to get them through October 10th.

In sports, the Kappa football team has decided to forego any formal practices and take on the North Campus squads on our natural athletic ability. Coach Al Young believes we have a chance at victory, but only if we can use his football, (it's bigger and greener than most regulation footballs).

Congratulations are in order for two Kappa Brothers this week. First, to Doug Hanks for becoming a member of the Lowell University faculty. Doug is teaching a group of psychology students on North Campus, but his office is located in the South Campus cafe. Secondly, to Dave Languirand, for making the biggest decision of all. No, he's not shaving off his beard! He's leaving the ranks of bachelorhood and entering into marriage sometime in June. The Brotherhood wishes the best for Dave and hopes that his first son will be named Nahum.

Kappa is also planning another Halloween party. If we're lucky, we may be graced with the presence of last year's star, our favorite transvestite, alumni Brother (Sister?) Randy Cheney. The exact date and time will appear in a later column.

In closing, a quote from Ken Daigle, who issues profound statements from far away Kappa-land with increasing regularity. His words this week are: "Al Young fights fire with water." Alright, O.K. Ken.

Kappa Sigma

This summer was a bit more quiet than last year but Lucy Bowels paid her summer visit and provided an interesting night for everyone. Right Chuck?

We'll be having a Wet Tee-Shirt Contest and Disco party on September 30th at 8:00. Lucy urges all girls to enter the contest to compete with her. It's the only way you'll have fun. There will be lots of beer and good music.

Disco Duck will also make an appearance along with Al Wilson and Donna Summer. Check our posters scattered along the halls for more information.

More physical and financial effort has gone into the house and it looks pretty good. It may be sinking into the Merrimack, but it's still here.

Steve has left us and is now drying out in the navy; Scott was washed away when his waterbed broke; Jon is tipping a sailboat out in the Atlantic; Gus is trying to find out exactly where Shirley was; Dan is vacationing in Nutbush City Limits; Ken is secretly making posters, and Mike's car trunk is still paying for gas.

Delta Kappa Phi

Hello again from the big red house on 523 Fletcher street. If this article seems to be lacking something, it does—experience. We would like to thank all of the participants in Wednesday's train, with a special thanks to Dean King for his hospitality. Best wishes go to Evil and Midget for their future plans.

Now for sports. Due to the lack of lime on the football field, our well organized and well conditioned football team was unable to exhibit its offensive firepower and stingy defense. The season is now slated to open next week.

LiMPlnG rIghT aLoNg, come get engulfed in Tuesday night's Welcome Fall Dive-In night. For rides, call the House at 452-8150. Plunging begins at 7:30. PHI PSI is holding another OPEN BAND PARTY on Saturday, Oct. 2nd starting at 7:30 so come early to catch HAPPY HOUR. And next Wednesday, Oct. 6th, the house is running a HOT DOG DAY in Cumnock Hall and if you act now, you can have all three activities for the low, low price of—Did I really say that? Enough, enough of all these activities, let's get back to basics. Basically speaking, typing can get difficult when you can't use your toes. Toast? A Toast—"I'll drink to those who do, and I'll drink to those who—CUT!

We interrupt this column because the secretary is plastered. Any resemblance between these last few lines and Phi Psi is pure heresay. Say here, I resemble that remark. Get him out of here. We now calmly continue with the pre-written and pre-edited:

PHI PSI FLAK... the 484th annual Christopher Columbus award is presented to Limp for the time he, George and Gilligan toured Regis but nothing Regis-toured in the mind of the guard at the gates. And this month's pop single rocking the Top 50 Gamma charts is dedicated to Dino Grimaldi, entitled "I Dig a Pig-sty"... and the new advertising agency formed by Eddie Smith, Chuck Bell, Gary Hammond and Tom Hajjar will be known as Hermorrhoid, Hurrican, Hammer, Hajjar and Boofie...

GREEKS

Omicron Pi

In behalf of the brotherhood of Omicron Pi I would like to thank everyone who took part in both the mixer at South Campus, and Shea Stadium. The mixer went off really well and everyone did have a good time.

Shea Stadium went as expected, there was standing room only; as a matter of fact, the last I heard the score was; the bars 10, everyone else 0. Apparently, as a whole, all participants had a good time seeing the only things left when the party broke up was ten empty kegs of beer, a few bodies and Nitty asking if anyone will take him home.

Football season officially opened last Wednesday with OPi playing TKE, but the game was canceled because the fields were not ready and the cemetery had no vacancies. On Monday the 27th, OPi goes against Kappa Sigma. I do hope that KE knows they are coming up against the smoothest moving machine on campus this year. GOOD LUCK If anyone wants to come to the game and help the brothers cheer their team on the game is at 6:00 at Bartlette Field. Hope to see you there!

Now that OPi's rush season is officially open we will be having many activities and functions. If you are a freshman, sophomore, or junior and like what you see at OMICRON PI watch for the announcements and future postings.

Sigma Kappa Epsilon

Alright this is it! I've been sitting here for an hour trying to think of a knock-out opening statement and I'm sick, tired, frustrated—therefore, starting right now EKE will be sponsoring a weekly "knock-out opening statement" contest. If you need a prize you're not worth it! So there! Send your entires c/o EKE.

This week's screaming armpit award goes to certain chauvinistic members of the riders of the night. Apparently unwilling to let Birons be Birons they're apt to get athlete's mouth—now that's quite a sneakerful.

Sign-up sheets for pledging will be available for the remainder of this week in the Caf. I think it's a great sorority—but I'm biased—so come on over and see for yourselves. Make yourselves known, get to know some of the sisters—we'd really like to talk with you. You just might discover joining a sorority is worth your while.

The continuing quest for a new sorority house goes on and on but we still can't find the one. Anyone finding a sorority house wandering around, please return it to the SO. Campus Caf. Reward.

Ancient Chinese Proverb say: "Only a boob would go to Kappa Sig's wet T-shirt night."

Questions of the week:

"Whatever happened to Icky Rat?"

Jan—"HOT Dog Day?"

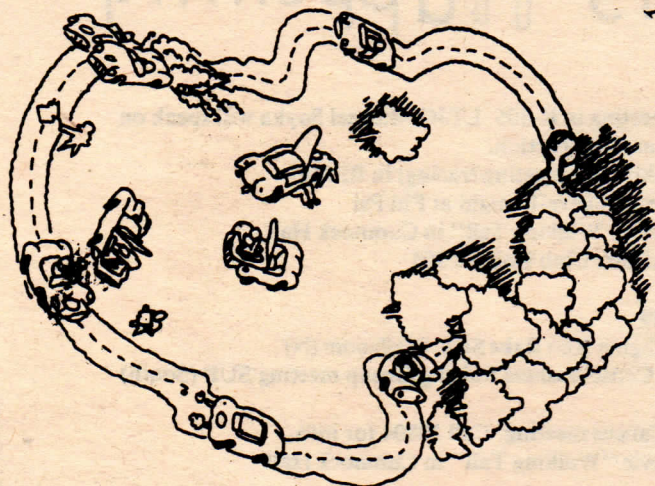

Who's been ripping off our posters?"

To the author: Anne, it's good to have you back again. Glad to see you weren't attacked by a bear. You'll always be "Old Faithful" in our hearts.

Two Greek's articles were misplaced en route to the typesetter and had not been located by presstime. Our apologies to Alpha Sigma Tau and PI Lambda Phi.

Hi! Hope all of you are settled into your classes and life is moving right along; no big hassles. I also want to take this chance to welcome President Duff to the University. I hope as many students as possible will be at his inauguration to give him the support he needs and deserves. It's not easy keeping a big school like this running smoothly!

As for the horseshoes themselves, where was everybody last Tuesday? Those of us at the meeting were trying to figure out what kind of strange sickness afflicted all of you. Hope you get over it soon. (People with jobs & classes, please disregard!)

We've got a really super bunch of pledges this semester! Looks like we found the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow this time!

IMPORTANT: Dues are due on October 15th. We want this semester to be fun, but even though money doesn't buy happiness, we do need some of it to survive and to have some of that fun. Please don't wait until the very last minute.

Final thought for the week: To err is human; to really foul things up requires a computer!

Phi Sigma Rho

The Sisters of Phi Sigma Rho wish to use their column this week to explain what our sorority is for those who don't know us.

We are a relatively small but close sorority with a present active membership of twelve. In our activities we like to stress our social and civic responsibilities. We make our size work to our advantage by being closer to one another. Our sorority has participated faithfully in all possible women's intramural sports and have done considerably well.

With your help and ours we would like to be a growing sorority. If any of you have some spare time the sisters are usually in the women's lounge (3rd floor Kitson), between classes. Feel free to come and talk to the sisters and join us in our activities.

There will be a Bake Sale on Wednesday, September 29, 1976 from 9-2 in the North Campus Mailroom.

We leave you now with a piece of poetry as our thought for today.

Whenever your troubles may grow
And spirits are incredibly low.
You find that you need someone to talk to
About that gray gloom throughout you
If you come to me, your griefs I'll always heed
For today you are my friend in need.
Suggestions to you I could lend
In hopes that your heart would soon mend.
My words will be my sincerest belief
And may they bring you forthwith relief.
Soon your sorrows will be out of sight
And everything will be alright.
But remember if your heart should again bleed
I will always be your friend, Indeed.

Gallery 410

On Tuesday, September 21, the University of Lowell's Gallery 410 opened with its first show of the season. A collection of pencil drawings entitled "Dreamscapes" by U of L graduate Mark Lander was featured. Approximately 40 persons attended the opening and enjoyed both the art work and the refreshments. Sponsored by the Art Co-op, the show will continue through Oct. 5 after which there will be show of works by University of Lowell's Art Department faculty.

U. Lowell Soccer Looks Bright

The soccer program looks bright for ULowell. Last week the varsity team filled its 18 positions from a field of 45 candidates. The varsity schedule consists of 15 games and the "B" team will play 9 games. Strong performances are expected from seniors Amadu Sesay and Capt. John Pustis, juniors John Kalkanajian and Tony Chaves, sophomores Jack Hanlon and Steve Lemieux and freshmen Mark Kalkanajian and Mark McKue.

Strong competition in the names of sophomores Mike Dorey and Chuck Wood will be seen for the position of goalkeeper. To them goes the task of keeping the Chiefs' nets free of foreign soccer balls.

The young team presently enjoys membership in Division III of NCAA soccer. The Chiefs must master a new system, but not without the help of a new coach, Jeff Gettler. With his help and the talent that this team possesses, the ULowell men have a good chance in entering Division II of NCAA soccer.

Lowell enjoyed its first victory here at the North Campus field, despite a dismal dotting of fans. Wednesday, Sept. 22, Lowell blanked Merrimack 2-0. The losing team went away sadder but wiser! The first half of the game went scoreless but early in the second half Lowell took the lead 1-0 with a goal by Amadu Sesay and assist by Harry Bosselman. The Chiefs clinched the Coup D'etat with their second and last goal of the game. The fame and fortune goes to Alfredo Ford and Joel Behrsing who assisted for Lowell.

What college women are being pinned with.

As a woman ROTC student, you'll compete for your commission on the same footing as the men in your class.

There are 2-year, 3-year, and 4-year scholarship programs available. A young woman enrolled in the AFROTC 4-year program is also qualified to compete for an AFROTC college scholarship which will cover the remaining 2 or 3 years she has as a cadet. Tuition is covered...all fees paid...textbook costs reimbursed...plus $100 a month allowance, tax-free.

A woman's place is definitely in the Air Force and our pinning ceremony will be the highlight of her college experience.

Put it all together in Air Force ROTC.

The University of Lowell's perpetual motion cross country team mowed seven other colleges in their first outing of the year at the "University of Lowell Invitational Meet."

Leading the pack in record breaking time were All-Americans Bob Hodge and Vin Fleming, both timed at 24:22, sixteen seconds ahead of Flemings old course record and 45 seconds ahead of the next finisher from Wheaton College, Illinois. In fourth place was freshman sensation Mike (Jack Hammer) Hurton, not only known for his talent as a runner but also for his live appearances at the "Rat." Larry MacDonald, another freshman surprise was ULowell's fourth man finishing sixth in the race. Coming in seventh and fifth for the team was soph Donnie Powers who is getting better every day. Right behind Donnie was Brad (Beach Boy) Hurst, getting into form after a better than average summer. Rounding out the top seven ULowell finishers was soph Al Fournier finishing tenth.

The ULowell squad is at present ranked seventh in New England and are one of the favorites to win the Division III Championships with defending champion Vin Fleming and silver medalist All-American Bob "super ground hog" Hodge leading the challenge. On Monday the 27th, the Chiefs will face probably their toughest opponent on their schedule so come on down and cheer the team on while on their way to a possible national championship.

Ed. Note: Congratulations to Vin Fleming who was elected captain of the cross country team by his teammates.

Women's Tennis Team starts season

The University of Lowell women's tennis team began their season Tuesday, September 21 with a close match against Worcester State. The team, under the coach, Claire Chamberlain, was defeated 3-2, but put up a good fight. The scoring went as follows: singles; Eileen Malloy against Pat O'Connor, 3-6, 1-6; Patti Cawley against Pat Ethier, coming close, but losing in the tie breaker, 6-7, 1-6; and Julie Carignan against Barbara Mordini, 5-7, 1-6.

In the doubles there was plenty of action. Judy Foster teamed with Joanne Kember, won straight sets against Bonnie Burns and Mary-Ann Maly, to stop the Worcester team with 7-5, 6-2. (Their socks must have helped!) Then Debbie Greenwood and partner Karen Perna topped Unda Pacharian and Laurie Cohen with 6-2, 4-6, 6-1.

Their next game is against Boston U. at 4:00 on Thursday, September 30 on the South Campus tennis courts. We appreciate all the support and hope to see you all there.

Women's Tennis Team starts season

The ULowell baseball program opened its fall season over the weekend. Friday they played at MIT and Saturday they travelled to St. Anselm's for a doubleheader. Next comes eight straight home games at Alumni Field so come on down to see ULowell's first team that has played in a post-season tournament.

Currently the Chiefs are beginning to raise money for a preseason trip to Florida in March. Last year's baseball program totalled 52 games; 14 in the fall, 11 in Florida, 25 up north in the spring, and the two ECAC tournament games. This year Coach Stone plans on possibly more games and has already added four more games to his spring schedule including first time opponents Springfield and Eastern Connecticut.

This week the fall season continues on Wednesday against Northern Essex at 3:30 and a doubleheader on Saturday against Mass Bay beginning at 12:00. Each of these games are being played at Alumni Field off Route 38 next to Cawley Stadium. See you there!

ULowell explodes past Worcester State

The University of Lowell football team opened its 1976 football season in impressive fashion last week. In a game played at the Dracut High field, the ULowell Chiefs took on the highly rated Lancers of Worcester State. Lowell, combining an opportunistic offense with an overpowering defense, rolled to a 36-7 victory.

Lowell opened the scoring midway through the first quarter. With fullback Ken Gorthier and halfback Terry Colman leading the way, the Chiefs marched sixty yards for the touchdown and a 6-0 lead. Gorthier then rushed for the two point conversion with a tremendous second effort to bring the score to 8-0. The rest of the first half was a struggle of the defenses, as neither team could mount much of an attack. The intermission came with the score still standing at 8-0.

The second half began with Worcester kicking off to ULowell. The Chiefs wasted no time in putting the game away. On the second play from scrimmage, Colman started left, but found his route blocked and quickly reversed his direction. Running down the right sideline behind some excellent blocking, Colman raced fifty yards before he was knocked out of bounds at the Worcester 15 yard line. The Chiefs then showed their excellent backfield depth and replaced Colman after his run, with Jackie Campbell, an excellent runner who played his high school football for Bishop Fenwick. With the backfield combination now Gorthier and Campbell, Lowell found paydirt once again with Gorthier carrying this one over the goal line. The two point conversion was good and the score was now 16-0 in favor of Lowell.

The Lowell defense continued its complete dominance of the Worcester team. The entire defensive squad played a good, tough game with individual players making outstanding plays all along the line. Defensive tackles John Green and Mike Chisolm played excellent games. The defense again got the ball for the offense in good scoring position. With Tipper Durkin continuing to call signals at quarterback, Lowell marched in for its third touchdown of the game. This time it was Colman scoring his second TD of the afternoon. Score: 22-0.

Lowell kicked off to Worcester; the defense held, forcing a fumble on the part of Worcester St. Again the offense took the field and drove steadily for its fourth score of the day, with Jackie Campbell taking this one over. The conversion kick was good—29-0.

Again Lowell kicked to Worcester. The defense again held but there was no need for the offense to take the field as safety Peter Wikowski picked off a pass and quickly ran the ball back forty yards for the touchdown. The conversion was good and the score was now 36-0. Worcester scored its only touchdown late in the fourth quarter to make the final score 36-7.

Last weekend the Chiefs played a tough team as Assumption. This week's game is a Home Game on Saturday, October 2 at Dracut High field at 1:30 against Western New England. Be there! Show a little spirit and see how good the ULowell football team is. Enjoy yourself!
